Trip description

A real exploration trek between Nachvak and Komaktorvik Fjords. The historic region that this route crosses is one of the main attractions of the Torngat Mountains National Park. You will trek through untouched natural scenery, the beauty of which peaks at Nachvak Fjord, to explore the most beautiful landscapes in the south ecozone of the Arctic cordillera.

Trip Itinerary

Day 1: Montreal - Kuujuaq - Kangiqsualujuaq (Georges River)/Barnoin Camp Flight >

Upon arrival at Barnoin Camp, the manager will welcome you with a cocktail, followed by an informational meeting concerning safety and equipment preparation for the next day's flight to Nachvak Fjord. Dinner and overnight stay at the lodge.

Day 2: Floatplane flight between Barnoin Camp and Nachvak Fjord >

In the early morning, a floatplane will take you on a spectacular panoramic flight to Nachvak Fjord. Your trek starts with a walk to mount Ford. The view over the impressive fjord will take your breath away. At night, watch the aurora borealis. Stay overnight in a tent.

Day 3 to 12: Trek toward Mounts Ford, Gerfalcon, Razorback and Eliot and Fjord Komaktorvik through an extraordinary variety of landscapes >

This adventure trek between fjords and mountains offers you a perfect mix of sites with names that will make your dreams come true. From the very beginning of the trek you will encounter vertiginous falls and magnificent landscapes. This trek offers you the unique opportunity to penetrate into the soul of the Torngat Mountains, where wild nature reigns unchallenged over the grand landscapes: spotless icebergs, turquoise fjords, sapphire lakes, intact tundra and mountains that touch the ocean—everywhere you look, you contemplate a new marvel.

Day 13: Afternoon Return Flight to Camp on the Barnoin River >

Dinner and overnight stay at the lodge.

Day 14: Return trip >

Breakfast at the lodge.
